

The Fast Lane

The band

What do you think when you imagine The Fast Lane?

Great Rock n Roll from The Eagles, of course, but also, Bob Seger, Bruce Springsteen, CCR, John Mellencamp, The Killers, The Rolling Stones, Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers, ZZ Top and great Canadian groups like April Wine 54-40, Colin James, Brian Adams & Tragically Hip.

We love to play these classic songs live for music lovers covering the best from the 70's to today. Scott Driscoll has been performing since 2015 with these talented musicians.

With the support Night Magic Entertainment we have developed this band to provide our clients with the most modern solutions for their event's musical performance needs. So, whether you're hosting a festival, a private party, corporate function, or wedding, let us help you make it one to remember. We have the experience and understanding of the planning and preparation that goes into running a successful event, and that means we'll always provide you with the best options possible that fall within your budget. Whatever your event, we can help make it amazing.

We are grateful for your continued support of live music.

Unforgettable Performance by True Pros

We hosted a big Christmas bash and the band took the party to another level. All night long, I was hearing from all the guests "How did you find these guys? This band is awesome!!!" People were amazed by the performance. These guys are all very talented musicians, but also very professional and nice, kind hearted people. A treat to work with and deal with. Very responsive and detailed oriented. They smashed the big rock songs out of the park, but also nailed the classic Christmas songs with ease and style. The guitar solos were a special treat.

We will definitely hire this band again at future events!

Thanks again for helping us through a Christmas Party for the ages!!!

Great band for our private event!

The dance floor got a lot of use at our party and everyone enjoyed the band!

Great repertoire for a range of ages in the crowd. They do a good job with communication, setup and takedown timing, and monitoring sound quality throughout the event. Volume was just right for the room. Music was well played and got a thumbs up from the tougher judges. We will work with this band again!
